

U. S. Supreme Court Upholds Federal Farm Loan Bank

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Federal decrees dismissing injunction proceedings against the federal farm loan banks were upheld today by the supreme court.

Millions of dollars in loans to farmers have been held up pending a decision of the court in this case, which was brought by Charles W. Smith, a stockholder in the Kansas City Title & Trust company, who sought an injunction to restrain that institution from investing its funds in bonds issued by the farm loan banks.

The action of the supreme court paves the way for resumption of business by the federal farm loan banks in the United States.

The court in sustaining federal court decrees dismissing injunction proceedings brought by Mr. Smith also held that congress had the authority to exempt the bonds of the bank from taxation.

The court divided, 6 to 2. Justices Holmes and McReynolds dissented. Justice Brandeis took no part in considering the case. Justices Hughes and McReynolds held that the "cause" should have been dismissed by the court as being solely within the scope of the Missouri courts.

LOANS HELD UP. Farm loans aggregating more than $50,000,000 have been held up since May, 1929, as a result of the suit instituted by Charles W. Smith, a stockholder in the Kansas City Title & Trust company, to test the validity of the Federal Farm Loan Act. Applications to this amount were pending when Commissioner Lobdell announced at a conference of farm loan officials here that official approval would be withheld pending a decision of the court.

Officials placed the total amount of loans to farmers held in abeyance by the suit at many times $50,000,000, however, the receipt of applications having stopped with Commissioner Lobdell's announcement. On March 1, 1929, the Farm Loan Board reported that $182,897,000 had been advanced to 75,324 farmers and that applications from 189,334 persons then pending totaled $171,000,000.

FORM OF APPEAL. The suit in the supreme court was in the form of an appeal from lower court decisions refusing to issue an injunction to restrain the Kansas City Title and Trust company from investing its funds in bonds issued by the farm loan banks. The government, the Federal Land bank of Wichita, Kansas, and the First Joint Stock Land bank of Chicago, on their own application, were made defendants in order that the entire question might be settled finally in one suit.

Counsel for Mr. Smith asserted in substance that the Farm Loan Act was an exercise of power which congress did possess under the constitution. Further ground for attack was found in the exemption of the farm loan securities from taxation, as "instrumentalities of the government."

FISCAL AGENTS. William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, submitted the government brief as special assistant to the attorney general, in the argument of the case. He asserted that the banks were created as "fiscal agents" of the government and that congress had the clear right to set up such institutions. Since assistance to agriculture pertains to the general welfare, it was argued, congress could have made direct appropriations for the purpose in view, but chose to create these special agencies to provide the necessary funds.

With regard to the tax exemption feature, Mr. McAdoo contended that it was "simply a question for congress to determine when the usefulness of its agencies would be enhanced by exemption."

TRUCK DRIVER ESCAPES DEATH

Percy Dawson Thrown Under Street Car Wheels; Little Hurt

Percy Dawson, milk wagon driver, narrowly escaped death beneath the wheels of a streetcar yesterday afternoon when the truck which he was driving was overturned by a Twenty-first streetcar at Twenty-first street and Jefferson avenue.

The truck was overturned and badly smashed. Dawson was disengaged from fifteen feet, but escaped with superficial injuries.

Dawson, it is said, was driving north on Jefferson avenue. In crossing the intersection, the truck was struck broadside by the streetcar. Dawson was thrown in the street. The impact of the collision caused the streetcar to leave the track, and it ran to the curbing at the side of the street before stopping. Dawson was thrown directly in the car's path, but was saved by the fender.

Detective R. H. Woolton and Traffic Officer R. H. Hawkins investigated the accident.

FIGHT LOOMS IN DALTON REWARD

Wounded Vet Offers Buddie $100 of $26,000 Paid for Boy Thief

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Feb. 28.—Attorney E. W. Ogilvie, employed by James Dennis to get the reward for the arrest of William Dalton, Chicago bank thief, today said that he believes his client under the law is entitled to all of the $26,000 reward and will accordingly put up a fight for the whole amount. Dennis found Dalton on a country road Saturday and took him in his automobile to Heyworth, Ill., where the youth later was arrested by Constable Jack Draper. The boy still had all but $500 of the bonds.

HEYWORTH, Ill., Feb. 28.—Bleek Hollin, village marshal today mediated over the greatest loss of his life—$26,000 in rewards offered for the recovery in liberty bonds and the arrest of William Dalton, 16-year-old Chicago bank robber, who was arrested in a pool hall Saturday. The marshal permitted his judgment to rob him of the reward. He watched Dalton play pool and refused to disturb him because he was convinced Dalton was not the clerk.

"I'll bet $100 he ain't the boy," Hollin told Paul Draper, son of Jack Draper, village constable. But Draper sought his father. The $26,000 in rewards was paid to the constable's son.

Young Draper and several veterans who were wounded five times and gassed, is taking a correspondence course to become a detective. He plans to spend most of his fortune on his 525 acre homestead near Lewisport, Mont. He intends to give a share to his father, but the amount he plans to give James Dennis, who brought Dalton into Heyworth in his motorcar was a subject that set tongues to wagging.

Draper first said he would present Dennis, a buddy in France, with $100 but the villagers declared this was not enough.

Draper who is 24 and unmarried, returned recently from a hospital where he spent 20 months recovering from his wounds. He receives a partial disability allowance of $5 a month.

SPOONING APPROVED AS OUTDOOR SPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Spooning by young couples at Fifth avenue was officially recognized Sunday as a legitimate outdoor sport.

Sheriff D. H. Knott, in a statement made in reply to an anonymous correspondent who complained of the practice, declared it seemed to him a "man must be either a crabbed old bachelor or one who has been disappointed in love who will seek to invoke the aid of nature as old as the world."

"Certainly there is nothing clandestine in spooning at a bus, he said. "Let the spooners spoon. They always did it always will. Why try to awaken them from love's young dream? I want to state I must refuse to designate deputies to stop what you call a nuisance. This statement by you represents only a haphazard conclusion, a state of mind."

Better Service This Week

On Saturday the crowds of buyers were too great to give to each customer the service we like to give. This week the service will be better. This entire Stafford millinery stock will be closed out before the sale is completed.

Much of this stock was in untrimmed shapes and trimmings. These are now being made into finished hats that are being added to the sale lots as they come from the shop.

The four great groups are still intact and are being enriched by the addition of some of our own new trimmed hats at prices lowered to make the offerings attractive.

There's quite a stock of untrimmed shapes as well as trimming materials in the sale. The mornings will be the best time to look about. Every day will, naturally, be very busy.
